

The following constitution was approved at the XXVII ILGA World Conference held in Mexico City on 27-31 October 2014

	CONSTITUTION of ILGA
C1	PREAMBLE
C1.1	Recognising the fundamental pride that lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, trans people, and intersex (LGBTI) people have in their gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, and bodily diversity;
C1.2	Conscious that social and legal discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, and intersex, is pervasive and that effective work against oppression calls for international solidarity;
C1.3	Seeking in ILGA as an international organization within which lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex people of different political and personal choices (for example, separatism, feminism, orientation and identity) can work together;
C1.4	Concerned with the vulnerability of youth in a world that continues to practice so many forms of discrimination, the need for their protection from abuse and the goal of ensuring that young people experience both freedom and support as they develop their own sexualities and identities;
C1.5	Mindful of the impact of discrimination on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, bodily diversity, race, age, disability, economic status, national origin and ethnicity on lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, trans people and intersex people, and the way in which such discrimination can end in violence and violation of human rights
C1.6	Building on the work of previous generations who have struggled for equality and liberation;
C1.7	We approve this document as the Constitution of the International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association.
C2	CONSTITUTION
C2.1	The International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association (ILGA) is an international non profit organisation in conformity with art. 60 in accordance with Swiss Civil Code and with this Constitution and covers the activities of ILGA. The association is incorporated for an unspecified period.
C2.2	The registered office is in Geneva. ILGA is registered with the registre du commerce of Geneva.

	The Executive Board of ILGA, can decide by the majority of its members, to move the registered office elsewhere, even abroad, if special circumstances require so, especially if this has the effect to safeguard its freedom of action. Such a decision must nevertheless be ratified within 180 days by the World Conference by a simple majority of votes cast for and against.
C2.3	The working languages of ILGA are English and Spanish.
C3	AIMS AND OBJECTIVES
C3.1	The Aims and Objectives of ILGA are:
C3.1.1	To work for the equality of lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, trans people and intersex people and liberation from all forms of discrimination;
C3.1.2	To work for equality of all people who live and face discrimination because of their perceived or actual sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or bodily diversity.
C3.1.3	To promote the universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms, including the elimination of all forms of discrimination and also including the realisation of the specific provisions of the following international human rights instruments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights; • The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights; • The International Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Racial Discrimination; • The Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination against Women; • The Convention on the Rights of the Child • The Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities • The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples • The International Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment • The International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families • The International Convention on Enforced Disappearance
C3.2	To work towards these goals, ILGA shall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create a platform for lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, trans people and intersex people internationally, in their quest for recognition, equality and liberation, in particular through the world and regional conferences; • Work towards equal representation in all regions for lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, trans people and intersex people in our quest for recognition, equality and liberation; • Give support for ILGA members in coordination with its regions; • Collect information, conduct research, publish material and organise seminars, training, briefings and specialised conferences; • Offer facilities for co-ordination of activities and actions.

C4	MEMBERSHIP
C4.1	All members have to support the aims of ILGA.
C4.2	Membership in ILGA is divided into two categories: Full members and Associate members. Full members are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • non-profit organisations representing lesbians, gays, bisexuals, trans people or intersex people, their culture or providing exclusive service to or support for them; • branches of the above mentioned organisations; • non-profit groups representing lesbians, gays, bisexuals, trans people or intersex people within other organisations such as trade unions and political parties. Associated members are: other organisations of public law, such as cities, regions, political parties or trade unions, etc., or of private law. Individuals wishing to associate to ILGA may become a 'Friend of ILGA'.
C4.3	Application: An applicant for any category of membership of ILGA or for friends of ILGA must submit an application to the registered office of ILGA and affirm agreement with the aims and objectives of ILGA. An organisation applying for full or associate membership must provide a description of itself, its aims, the composition of its membership, target group and structure.
C4.4	Admission: Applications for full or associate members which are in conformity with the aims and objectives in this constitution shall be accepted by the Executive Board, subject to final decision by the World Conference. The Executive Board can delegate the acceptance of new members in a region to a regional structure set up in accordance with C5.2.
C4.5	Suspension and expulsion: A member may be suspended from membership by the Executive Board for failure to comply with this constitution by at least a 50% plus 1 majority of its members voting for the suspension. The suspension, unless revoked by the Executive Board, shall remain in force until the next World Conference. A member may be expelled from membership by motion at a World Conference for failure to comply with this constitution. Members facing the possibility of expulsion have the right to present their defence. An individual may no longer be recognised as a 'Friend of ILGA' by the Secretaries General. Where such an action occurs, the Secretaries-General will submit their decision to the next Executive Board meeting for review.
C4.6	If a member does not pay the annual membership fee within 3 months after being given notice that the fee is due, the member will not be able to exercise the rights of a member as set out in this constitution until such time as any outstanding fees have been paid.

C4.7	Members shall at all times have the same membership status in a region as in ILGA itself.
C5	REGIONAL STRUCTURES
C5.1	The regions of ILGA are Africa, Oceania (Aotearoa/New Zealand, Australia and Pacific Islands), Asia, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) and North America.
C5.2	Within each region members may form a regional organisation. All members of ILGA in a region are members of the same category in the regional organisation.
C5.3	The highest authority for each regional organisation is the regional conference. In accordance with the provisions in C8.3 the regional caucus at the World Conference will take on the duties of the regional conference in case such a conference has not taken place between two World Conferences.
C5.4	The aims of regional organisations shall at all times be consistent with the aims expressed in this constitution, and their work shall reflect the diversity of members in the region.
C5.5	Regional organisations may make decisions on regional structures and regional matters, and regional conferences have the power to determine the policy of the regional organisation, according to their rules, subject to the provisions of this constitution.
C5.6	Where no such rules have been determined, then the arrangements for regional conferences must follow ILGA's Standing Orders as closely as possible in order to be recognised as official events of ILGA.
C5.7	Where no such rules have been determined, and in case a Regional Conference has not decided the place and time of the next conference, then the Office of ILGA in Geneva or regional office if there is one, shall communicate to all full members in the region that they can propose to organise the next regional conference. Members that wish to do so need to present and defend their proposal. The proposals are public. The decision will be made by the regional board if there is one. If there isn't one, a committee composed of the Secretaries-General, the region's representatives on the Executive Board and 5 full members from the region will consider the various proposals, and decide which group will organise the next conference on the grounds of the criteria in the invitation for proposals.
C5.8	A regional organisation shall mention in its own constitution that it is a regional organisation of ILGA. A regional organisation may list, in its official name, the specific groups covered by ILGA, and for this purpose use wording and formulations appropriate to the cultural and linguistic context of that region. However, a regional organisation may not alter the name "ILGA" in the official name of the regional organisation.
